x = the sycophancy rate a checkpoint sits at, so more removal is to the left; y = capability at the same distance, relative to the buggy checkpoint.
The rewind baseline runs from the buggy checkpoint to the untrained model: a repair wins by sitting above it at the same rate. Error bars and bands are 95% paired intervals.